EIGHTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BOARD OF PHARMACY

MEMBERSHIP

There have been no changes in the membership of the Board during the year. At the July meeting Mr. H. V. Day was elected as President and Mr. D. D. Claytor was elected as Vice President. Mr. H. C. McAllister was re-appointed as Secretary-Treasurer.

MEETINGS

The Board held ten meetings during the year, two of which were examination meetings. The examinations were held in September and March.

OFFICES

The offices of the Board continue to be located in the Institute of Pharmacy in Chapel Hill. The space problems of this arrangement as previously identified have not yet been solved. It is hoped, however, that in time adequate space for the Board's needs can be provided without relocation.

GENERAL PROGRAM

Aside from the usual licensing and law enforcement function of the Board, special attention has been given in support of the program of the improvement of pharmacy services in institutions. As a result of the good cooperation of the North Carolina Medical Care Commission and the North Carolina Hospital Association, excellent progress has been made in the area of hospital pharmacy practice, particularly in smaller hospitals. This progress continues at a good rate. The pharmacists of the state are to be commended for their interest and support of the program by working extra hours to provide their services to those hospitals.

The Nursing Home Division of the State Board of Health has also given the Board good cooperation in its effort to improve and regulate pharmacy services in nursing homes. A project is presently under way to expand the "Program of Assistance to Hospitals" to also cover nursing homes. A grant application for funds to support this project has been placed with a philanthropic foundation. Should funds be made available through this or other sources a program to improve pharmacy services and drug control in nursing homes will be undertaken immediately. The Board will join in with the other participating organizations and agencies in directing this program.

PHARMACIES AND PHARMACISTS

During the year sixty-nine pharmacists were registered by examination and forty-eight by reciprocity from fifteen states. On May 1st there were twenty-three hundred fifty-five pharmacists on the active roster. This represents a net increase of fifty-three over the number reported for the same date last year. This increase in number was not fully available for prescription practice. There was a net increase of only six in the number of pharmacists in full-time practice in community pharmacies and an increase of forty-four in part-time practice. There was an increase of six in the number of pharmacists in civilian hospitals and two in VA hospitals.

The shortage in the supply of available pharmacists in North Carolina to properly man existing pharmacy facilities for their customary schedule of hours of service has become serious. A Health Manpower Personnel Survey conducted by the U. S. Public Health Service in late 1965 and early 1966 indicates that in the United States as a whole there are 66 pharmacists per 100,000 population. In North Carolina this figure was found to be 38 pharmacists per 100,000 population, the lowest in the continental United States. As has been previously reported this problem has been chronic with us in North Carolina for a number of years. While it has had the effect of providing full utilization of our manpower in providing professional services, it is beginning to cause strains because of the hours that are necessary to render full service. If the situation is not to become critical the profession will need to place more emphasis on recruitment. There are two bright spots in our manpower situation. First, enrollment in the School of Pharmacy continues to increase (and needs to be stepped up even more). Second, slightly more than seventy-one per cent of our pharmacists in practice are under fifty years of age with more than fifteen per cent under age thirty. Approximately eleven per cent of the pharmacists continue in practice after age sixty-five. These figures seem to indicate that the time factor is running in our favor and will provide us with an opportunity to improve our situation if we will actively utilize this time in an effective recruitment and training program.

At the end of the fiscal year there were 1114 pharmacy permits outstanding for a net increase of thirty-eight during the year. Of this 1114 permits, 1035 were issued to community pharmacies, 71 to hospitals and 8 to nursing homes. The increase of thirty-eight can be broken down as follows: community pharmacies—8, full-time hospital pharmacies—4, "limited service" hospital pharmacies—20, and nursing homes—6.

Special mention should be made of the significant increase in the number of hospitals that now have their pharmacy facilities under the supervision of a pharmacist and registered with the Board. As will be noted, many of these are designated as "limited service permits." These are permits that are issued to smaller hospitals which do not require the services of a pharmacist on a full-time basis. The "limitation" on the permit is not in terms of scope of service but rather as to time. This limitation is best described by the legend that appears on the permit as follows: "pharmacy services authorized under this permit are limited to those rendered under the conditions as represented in the application for the permit." Thus by suitably completing the application and institution can "tailor" the permit to suit its own needs and at the same time fully comply with the legal and professional requirement of a safe and adequate pharmacy service in the hospitals.

This progress in upgrading pharmacy services in hospitals can be traced to the continued exemplary cooperation of the Medical Care Commission with the Board and the effects of the Plan of Assistance for Hospital Pharmacy. This project now has a full-time director and is functioning and succeeding far beyond expectations. A need has been identified for a similar program for community pharmacists who provide pharmacy services for nursing and rest homes. Plans for such a program have been completed and work is under way to secure grant funds for its implementation.

PREScriptions

The number of prescriptions filled in the state last year increased only slightly over the previous year—the total number being approximately 26 million. This is an increase of about 2% as compared with 20% last year. These data seem to indicate that the welfare prescriptions have about leveled off during the year. The average number of prescriptions per pharmacy was slightly more than 23,500 prescriptions per outlet.

CHANGE OF EXAMINATION DATES

The change in examination dates from February and June to March and September seems to favor earlier registration for a majority of the candidates. Since the change was inaugurated, 107 persons have been licensed by examination. Some candidates were delayed in taking the exam by this change. Others qualified earlier than would have been the case under the old schedule.

The following is a tabulation of the statistics for 107 candidates:

36 candidates were delayed one month
15 candidates were delayed three months
40 candidates were able to take the exams 5 months earlier

With 16 candidates it appeared to make no difference, since they did not take the first examination available to them following the completion of their practical experience.

If these data are totaled and the number of candidates that were delayed in taking the examination is multiplied by the number of months delayed and this result is compared with like information for candidates who were able to take the examinations early, it is found that there is a net gain of 119 months in earlier registration. Stated in another way, the change in dates, when averaged out, has enabled ten pharmacists to become licensed almost a full year earlier than would have been the case under the old schedule.

LEGISLATION

The bill to modernize our law providing the grounds for disciplinary action by the Board has been prepared for introduction by the Legislative Committee of the Association. In addition to modernizing the grounds on which the Board might act, the bill provides for the less drastic action of supervision in addition to the present grounds for revocation of a pharmacist's license. It also provides for action against a pharmacy permit on the same grounds as for a pharmacist's license. This latter provision will provide a condition in which the holder of a permit must assume the same degree of responsibility for compliance with the law as the pharmacist.

There appears to have developed some opposition to the passage of this bill. It is believed that this opposition stems from lack of understanding of just what the bill provides. Hopefully this misunderstanding can be cleared up before the bill is introduced since it is understood that the vast majority of the pharmacists favor this legislation.

FEDERAL-STATE RELATIONS

Last year the Board reported that arrangements had been worked out between the Bureau of Drug Abuse Control of the Federal Food and Drug Administration and a number of state boards of pharmacy for a pilot project wherein the boards of pharmacy would implement the Drug Abuse Amendments to the federal law insofar as pharmacists in their respective states are concerned. The initial pilot project involved six boards of pharmacy. This number has now been increased to eighteen.

Our Board has made some initial exploration of its ability to qualify for the administration of this law in North Carolina. Presently there seems to be some question as to whether our laws are such that we could meet the requirements. It is hoped, however, that if the legislation referred to above is passed the deficiency will be corrected.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

The Board has continued to handle administratively before the Board all complaints relative to pharmacy law violations on the part of pharmacists and pharmacy owners. Complaints involving 36 individuals have been heard by the Board as follows:

Substitution—2

Exempt narcotic irregularities—12

Pharmacy practice by unlicensed persons—
18

Conviction of FDC Act—1

Narcotic addiction—1

Alleged fraud in filling Welfare prescriptions—1

Peddling amphetamine and barbiturates—

Three of the above cases remain pending. Numerous other cases involving drug law irregularities on the part of those outside pharmacy have claimed the attention of the Board and, consistent with established procedure, were forwarded to other agencies, principally the State Bureau of Investigation.

On April 15th Inspector Gaddy resigned due to ill health. The Board will proceed to make a replacement as soon as a suitable applicant is found.

EIGHTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

REPORT OF ATTORNEY WOOTEN

North Carolina Board of Pharmacy
P. O. Box 471
Chapel Hill, North Carolina

Re: Annual Report 1966-1967

Gentlemen:

As attorney for the Board of Pharmacy, I have during this past year attended all Board meetings and functions and I have been available for conferencees and have advised with the Secretary and Inspectors of the Board on legal problems as they have arisen.

During April, 1967, I attended in connection with the meeting of the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy, a conference with attorneys representing other Boards and related groups and from this conference it is my hope that we will be able to establish a liaison to exchange information and ideas with those attorneys who for their clients are faced in many instances with the same type of cases and problems as we have to deal with.

Complaints before the Board during this period have been disposed of largely by Board action, and it has not been necessary that we pursue, except for a few, these complaints by formal Court proceedings either civil or criminal.

The program of discussing with candidates for the Board examination and candidates for reciprocity the laws and regulations of North Carolina governing the practice of pharmacy have been continued during this year.

In closing this year's work and service to you, I wish to thank you for the cooperation which we have received from the Board and its personnel in our efforts to be of service to you and to pharmacy in North Carolina.

Very truly yours,
BAILEY, DIXON & WOOTEN
Kenneth Wooten, Jr.

All Receipts entered on the Cash Book were in agreement with duplicate receipts on file and were properly deposited in the bank. Disbursements for the fiscal year were made for apparently proper purposes and are supported by signed, paid checks, receipted bills, etc.

The Balance on Hand at April 30, 1967 consists of the following:

CASH IN BANK:

North Carolina National Bank	$49,490.84
Central Carolina Bank & Trust Co. (Savings)	12,476.77
		$61,967.61

INVESTMENTS:

U. S. Treasury Bonds (2½%)	5.000.00
TOTAL BALANCE APRIL 30, 1967	66,967.61

The Cash In Banks was reconciled and verified. The five U. S. Treasury Bonds, 2½%, of $1,000.00 each, were inspected.

The fidelity bond for the Secretary & Treasurer, in the amount of $5,000.00, has been continued to October 1, 1967. A fire insurance policy of $5,000.00 on office equipment, has been extended to January 1, 1970.

The records, as heretofore, are in excellent condition and no difficulty was experienced in the verification thereof. We acknowledge the assistance rendered and courtesies extended during the progress of the examination.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. JAMES L. CREECH

The Woman's Auxiliary of the N. C. Pharmaceutical Association held its fortieth annual business meeting May 9, 1967 at the Robert E. Lee Hotel, Winston-Salem, with the president, Mrs. James L. Creech, presiding.

Following the Invocation by Mrs. C. D. Blanton, Jr., wife of the president of the N. C. Pharmaceutical Association, the Welcome was brought by Mrs. Jack Powell, president of the Winston-Salem Apothecary Club.

At the request of Mrs. Creech, the Assembly rose in silent prayer as a tribute to Mrs. E. W. O'Hanlon of Winston-Salem and Mrs. E. R. Anderson of High Point, who had passed away during the year.

The President appointed two committees: One Minutes—Mrs. Haywood Jones, Mrs. Banks Kerr, and Mrs. Cade Brooks; Auditing of the Treasurer's Report—Mrs. C. C. Wheeler, Mrs. Zack Lyon, Mrs. W. H. Randall. These committees were asked to meet at the Institute of Pharmacy, Chapel Hill the latter part of June.

Mrs. William P. Wells, Treasurer, reported a balance in the treasury of $2,292.75. She explained that her report was incomplete since convention receipts had not been totaled, but the full report would be submitted to the audit committee.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Mrs. W. H. Houser, Secretary, reported for the Executive Board. She stated that the group had met four times during the year with the president, Mrs. Creech, conducting the sessions. Actions taken by the Board at these meetings included:

REPORT OF THE "SPECIAL NAME" COMMITTEE

"We have among us one who bears many titles. She is, as most of us know, a wife and mother. Not too long ago she became a mother-in-law, and is hoping to be called grandmother some day. You and I know her primarily by the titles of hostess, chauffeur, tour guide, interior decorator, liaison officer, cook, advisor, secretary assistant, and one whom we call friend. For over twenty-five years this woman has had so many titles that she has been nameless. From the time her husband assumed his position, she has been working with the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association, the Woman's Auxiliary, the TMA, the School of Pharmacy, and the Wives of Students. To Mrs. W. J. Smith, we now extend the title of Co-ordinator, a title which covers her many talents and duties."

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

Membership Committee—Mrs. W. Latham West, Chairman

Mrs. West reported that at convention time there were 492 paid memberships, including 84 new members. With the 8 life members, this makes a total of 500. She reported convention registrations of 158.

Hospitality Committee—Mrs. Billy T. Allen, Chairman

Mrs. Allen reported that she had sent 55 cards and notes to Auxiliary members or their families in cases of bereavement, illness, weddings, births, congratulations.

Historian—Mrs. Larry Kennedy

Mrs. Kennedy called attention to the official Woman's Auxiliary scrapbook which was on display on the mezzanine of the Robert E. Lee Hotel.

Resolutions—Mrs. Robert Milton, Chairman

Mrs. Hoy Moose presented the report in the absence of the chairman. Resolutions of appreciation were read and unanimously accepted.

Publicity—Mrs. Robert B. Hall, Chairman

Mrs. Hall reported that in the Fall, publicity was sent to newspapers concerning the Convocation to be held in Chapel Hill. She expressed pride that the booklet "Let's Make A Hat" received national attention through the American Druggist Magazine and by being featured at the American Pharmaceutical Association convention in Las Vegas. She also reported that pre-convention publicity in the form of news releases was circulated to state papers. Doings—Mrs. George Cocolas, Chairman and Editor

Mrs. Cocolas reported that a newsletter which included the pamphlet "Let's Make A Hat" was mailed to the membership in August of 1966; in April of 1967 an issue of "Doings" was distributed to the membership, to local auxiliary presidents and to national leaders. A number of copies were taken to the APhA Convention in Las Vegas.

Ways and Means—Mrs. Grover Creech, Chairman

"Almost twelve months ago, through the brainwork of our very capable president, Pharmacy Auxiliary Originals was born. Soon after it was approved by our Executive Board, it was introduced at our Fall Workshop in Chapel Hill with your chairman dressed up in Grandma's 'Sunday-go-to-meeting' clothes. At that time we reminisced of the schedule of Grandma's day and how it differed from the tempo of our modern homemaker's life. . . . Our grandmothers would be very proud of the quality of handwork we have displayed at our convention sale, and I am sure our granddaughters will cherish some of the creativity within our Pharmacy Family. I am so happy we are helping to preserve these arts.

"As a result of your busy hands, I am happy to report that hundreds of originals have been contributed for our sale and we have approximately $1,000 to add to our Institute of Pharmacy Redecorating and Refurbishing Fund."

Nominating—Mrs. John T. Stevenson, Chairman

Mrs. Stevenson, reporting for the Nominating Committee, submitted the following slate of officers, to serve for the year 1967-68, which was unanimously accepted by the assembly: President, Mrs. W. G. Forrest, Gastonia; First Vice-President, Mrs. Don Chapman, Winston-Salem; Second Vice-President, Mrs. George P. Hager, Chapel Hill; Secretary, Mrs. William P. Wells, Durham; Treasurer, Mrs. Larry Kennedy, Broadway; Historian, Mrs. Jack Watts, Burlington; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Robert Brunson, Salisbury. Mrs. Charles Blanton, Jr. of Kings Mountain and Mrs. James L.

Creech of Smithfield will serve as Advisors. Special Committee—Mrs. George Markham, Chairman

In the absence of the chairman, Mrs. Eugene Hackney, Parliamentarian and committee member, reported that the Officers' Handbooks had been brought up-to-date and were ready for distribution to the new officers.

NEW BUSINESS

When the late Mrs. Ralph Rogers, Sr. completed the History of the Auxiliary in 1964, she recommended that the history be brought up-to-date every five or six years, rather than ten. Mrs. Creech announced the appointment of Mrs. John T. Stevenson to serve as a committee of one to write the Auxiliary History from 1964 through 1970.

The president introduced Mrs. Larry Baber as President of the new local auxiliary which had just been organized in Hendersonville.

Mrs. W. Latham West, First Vice-President, took the chair during the presentation of the President's Report.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Mrs. James L. Creech

I'm sure your hearts too, have swelled with pride as we have listened to the excellent reports of the Executive Board members and the Standing Committee chairman.

As we recall the varied activities and accomplishments created by our more than 500 Auxiliary members during the year 1966-67, let us think in terms of "Progress—Past and Future—Through Creativity."

After all, an Auxiliary such as ours develops through productive, creative minds. "No one will ever tell you that you are great, but you will know in your heart that the thing you do is. Dream your dreams of the past, build your air castles for the future."

Someone has said, "We can't all aspire to become a Raphael or Jonas Salk, a Winston Churchill or an Adlai Stevenson, a Dag Hammarskjold, a Jane Adams of Hull House, or a Madame Curie of medical fame; and leave to the world some classical, indelible mark which will inspire, embellish, and elevate centuries later, other minds to scale great heights and overcome great obstacles, but each of us can demonstrate to those with whom we associate or communicate that each is endowed with a great potential for alleviating suffering, eradicating strife, eliminating poverty and ignorance, and bringing the effects of creativity to make for universal good will and harmony among peoples of the earth. I believe there lies within the composition of each of us, whether dormant or kindled, a spark of creativity."

Your sparks have reminded me of the Milky Way—there are too many to count.

It has been my cherished privilege and sobering responsibility to serve as your president. I have experienced the strength of this Auxiliary as never before. Your hopes and aspirations, your successes and achievements—yes, and your sorrows and anxieties, have all become very much a part of my life. Since I have experienced these things so deeply, and since I feel so strongly that we are all personally involved in the Progress-Past and Future-Through Creativity, this report represents all of us and those who have gone before us.

As we take a retrospective look at this year, we are reminded that none of the accomplishments reported herein have been achieved by one person. Many have contributed to the work. My gratefulness cannot be expressed in words. I hope you know and feel it.

As your letters of good wishes arrived soon after Convention and as my family and hometown friends phoned or wrote me words of encouragement, the task before me took on added interest, and I buckled down to making Committee appointments. Never before have kind words meant so much!

PRESIDENT'S DIARY

A consultation with Vivian in late June at the Institute when the rose gardens were in full bloom—and some slides of our daughter, Mary, are a permanent record.

July 26th: To Chapel Hill: Can you imagine the thrill of presiding at your first board meeting with every member present?

July 27th: Concord bound with my traveling companion and friend, Tucker Lyon, a former Mt. Pleasant teacher and a friend of Polly Moose. True Southern hospitality was ours for the day in the attractive home of Mrs. Jesse Pike. Lovely portraits of their daughter left no one guessing she was a lover of horses.

We exclaimed so over the delicious food, they packed some extras for a homeward snack. Advice to future presidents: Never wear a white dress on such a trip, even if you do want to look cool on a hot summer's day,—unless you're sure that when you discover giant spots of grease on your skirt, you are parked at a service station across from Dun-Rite Laundry and Cleaners in Albemarle! The receptionist there whisked me back to the head cleaner and five minutes later, my dress white as new, we were on our way to the Cabarrus County Auxiliary with the words, "You don't owe us a thing," still ringing in my ears.

Their enthusiasm in Concord was contagious and as plans unfolded I became prouder by the minute to be a part of the Auxiliary. Results of their progress are evidenced in our various funds, in the "Pharmacy Originals," and in many outstanding programs.

Attending the "Pharmacist-of-the-Year" banquet in Roanoke Rapids for Alfred Nortin gave my husband, Jimmy, and me a deeper pride in the profession of pharmacy.

Dean Hager and President Blanton were featured speakers at our Fall Convocation in October, bringing us up to date on the progress of the School of Pharmacy and the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association. A skit titled, "Let's Make a Hat," was delightfully presented to more than 70 members from all over the state.

Mrs. Grover Creech, Ways and Means chairman, introduced our project for the year. Dressed in a costume of our grandmothers' era, she put the show, "Pharmacy Auxiliary Originals," on the road.

Projects are said to "call forth the creation of something that did not exist." Whether projects are tangible or intangible, they provide the warp and woof of our Auxiliary.

Food, Fun and Fellowship were served in generous portions when Dean and Mrs. Hager entertained the new faculty members and students at the Institute of Pharmacy on Sunday night, October 16th.

The following night, my sister Sarah, and I were guests of the Gaston County Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Fred Moss, Sr. in Gastonia. Never had we seen more beautiful yellow roses or such giant yellow mums. A huge mortar-and-pestle, souvenir of a New England vacation, added "pharmacy" atmosphere to the "master" living room.

Each year the Gaston Auxiliary and Drug Club give a Scholarship to a deserving Gaston County student. Toys, books, and games were given to the Morganton Center; "originals" were created; donations made to our Auxiliary funds; 500 hours pledged to community service. What progress!

From Gastonia to Asheville the next morning in time for the luncheon meeting of the Western North Carolina Club Auxiliary, despite a continuous downpour of rain that reminded us of Noah's flood. Nina Bryan, hostess, and Sandra Crouch, president, of Convention 1966 fame, apologized for the weather, but the mountains in their October dress were beautiful even in the rain, and I assure you there was nothing damp about the spirits of the Auxiliary members as we feasted on Mrs. Lloyd Jarrett's chicken mayonnaise and other delicious dishes prepared by the women and served in the Bryan's picturesque home overlooking a crystal lake.

Plans were outlined for a rummage sale and mysterious coat hanger sale. Generous donations have been made to our Loan Funds and Institute and a donation made toward a Paddy Chair for retarded children. "Originals" unlimited, such as an oil painting, crafts, and even a hat, are results of their creativity.

The skies cleared before we arrived at Salisbury's beautiful Country Club for the Rowan-Davie Auxiliary buffet luncheon the next day. Their shrimp creole was a delight! Their theme for the year was "Culture" and it was woven into each program by Elaine Fuller. Dues take care of their donations to our State Auxiliary Funds. This group was invited to a luncheon by the Medical Auxiliary along with wives of dentists and lawyers. There was a special program—you guessed it—Hat Designing. With originals such as an oil landscape, a kitchen sampler, linen tablecloth, and beautiful enamel pieces; wouldn't you brag too, if you were their president? Lynn Brnson did.

As early as November 3rd the Winston-Salem Apothecary Club was already making extensive plans for this Convention. In the attractive basement family room of a former Smithfield girl, Shelby Sistison, an enthusiastic group planned "originals" they would make, such as candles, crafts and needlework. Later they added beautiful paper flowers. A Christmas dinner and Bazaar with husbands, a Bridge Benefit with resulting contributions to the School of Pharmacy and the Scholarship Fund were part of their activities.

I would need to call on IBM to give us the total manhours and dollars spent for baby-sitters, which have gone into this Convention. To Mary Ann Powell, local Auxiliary president; to Linda and Jimmy Way, our first husband and wife co-chairmen Convention team; and to every member of the Winston-Salem Convention Committee—we are grateful for being treated so royally.

Back to Winston-Salem we went in late November for a pre-Convention planning session with the Smiths, the Blantons, the Ways and Creeches.

Our Christmas spirits were really heightened when Becky, another sister this time, accompanied me to Thomasville and to the Christmas Open House for the High Point Auxiliary and guests from nearby towns.

A most unusual and complete collection of mortars-and-pestles and apothecary jars reminded me of slides that may be borrowed from the Hugh Mercer Apothecary Shop in Fredericksburg, Virginia.

We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Anderson, a charter member, was killed in a car accident about three weeks ago. She had presided so graciously at the punch bowl on that gala occasion. The Auxiliary has made contributions to the Scholarship Fund and is assisting in organizing an Auxiliary in Asheboro.

A spring day in January and the Raleigh Woman's Drug Auxiliary greeted Ruby Creech and me at the Carolina Country Club. Plans were being brewed for a Bridge Benefit and a Dinner Dance. Gifts to the library of the School of Pharmacy, the Institute, and the Loan Fund were possible through these projects. Christmasy "johnny" seats are among the originals created by these members. Dot Kerr, President, wrote me, "Although I have been involved in Pharmacy life for a number of years, I have felt closer to it this year than ever before."

Another spring day, January 26th, and to Holiday Inn in Greensboro for a delightful luncheon meeting with the Greensboro Drug Club Auxiliary. Four of their six past state Auxiliary presidents were present and each added charm to this occasion. There seems to be no end to the progress being made across our state and Greensboro has contributed much by providing sundry kits for forgotten patients at Umstead Hospital; awarding of a local scholarship; plus making contributions to the Institute and School of Pharmacy. One member sold Christmas cards and contributed the proceeds to the treasury.

Dean and Mrs. Hager were guests at a dinner dance which the Greensboro Drug Club co-sponsored. Proceeds from a "bake sale" and "auction" supplemented their dues.

Mid-February and lovely Blair House was the setting for a luncheon meeting of the Mortar-and-Pestle Club of Durham and the Chapel Hill Auxiliary. My mother enjoyed for the first time what I had been trying to tell her, about the joys of Auxiliary work. My special thanks go to my mother and sister Becky, who displayed their creativity in adding to my wardrobe.

The Chapel Hill Auxiliary with Erie Cocolas at the helm, gives volunteer service to N. C. Memorial Hospital one night each month. They made and filled bags for Gravely Sanatorium patients at Christmas and donated two copies of the "Profession of Pharmacy" to their library. Proceeds from the Benefit Bridge will go to the Scholarship Fund. Originals with a big exclamation point, too! They made all kinds of needlework, including a white afghan.

The Mortar and Pestle Club of Durham, with Margaret Kelly as president, joined the Chapel Hill Auxiliary for a second program. This time they were guests of Mrs. R. L. Fowler, Jr. of Chapel Hill, designer of fabulous doll houses. If you want a real treat, arrange to see these doll houses on your next trip to Chapel Hill.

A highlight of the year was the presentation of the first Lucile Swaringen Rogers Scholarship to Mrs. June Richardson Peddy-cord, presented at the Fall Convocation by Mr. Ralph Rogers, Sr., husband of the late Mrs. Rogers for whom the scholarship was named. The fund now stands a $8,470.98. Miss Diane Stanton was presented the Vivian Spradlin Smith Scholarship at an earlier date.

Wrapping cancer bandages was one of the most important services rendered by the Auxiliary—but have you seen the sheath created by a member from fabric with a mortar-and-pestle design?

Next to Fayetteville with husband Jimmy, who spoke to the Men's group, while I shared slides of the Fall Convocation with the Cape Fear Auxiliary, after we had met jointly for a roast beef dinner. Lib Markham really deserves an "Oscar" for her performance in the "Let's Make a Hat" skit. Pat Thames, president, has used the gavel wisely. Donations to the Loan Fund and Scholarship Fund come from dues in the Cape Fear Auxiliary. Volunteer work with the T.B. Association in Cumberland County, and interesting gifts for the Convention sale have kept these girls busy.

"Happy Birthday" to the Burke County Auxiliary—one year old this month! Although small in number they have had excellent programs and fellowship. Six copies of the "Profession of Pharmacy" have been placed in their high school libraries. With a dedicated president like Nan Alexander, we'll be hearing more good things from Burke County in the future.

A Board Meeting at the Institute in February—with the lobby transformed into a Valentine fantasy. A luncheon with the board of the Pharmaceutical Association, served by Mrs. Smith, assisted by Mrs. Hager, was good and pretty.

Back to Winston in April for a final Pre-Convention session with all committee chairmen. And here at this Convention, we are enjoying their labors of love.

In addition to putting husbands through school, Pharmacy wives find time for Auxiliary fun and work too, such as making delightful Easter favors for the children at Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill, out of empty egg shells; attending a lecture by Dean Hager on the subject, "Professional Opportunities Open to Pharmacists"; and a Christmas Party at the Hagers home. Mary Setzer, president, has kept her members interested and active through mimeographed letters of Auxiliary activities.

To Charlotte, our Queen City, I shall go on May 16th to install their new officers in the lovely garden of Uldene Potter. A brunch will climax the festivities. Can you conceive of a Bridge Benefit with 41 tables in the morning and 46 at night, a total of 448 bridge players, and the Auxiliary members making all the prizes? The Woman's Auxiliary of the Charlotte Druggists Association did just that, in addition to a Christmas Bazaar, donating to the Empty Stocking Fund; sending gift wrapped packages to the Florence Crittenden Home at Christmas; and observing Zip Code Week. From their own Scholarship Fund they awarded a scholarship to a pharmacy student and contributed to the Institute and the Consolidated Loan Fund and toward book fees for a scholarship winner. They also made a generous contribution to the library fund of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte.

The progress made by our local Auxiliaries has been tremendous, as has that of the members-at-large. Whether it was the creation of a beautiful quilt by our projects chairman and her sister-in-law, or making place mats, as did our Fall Convocation Devotional Leader, or serving on a committee so that our work would not falter, or typing the President's many reports as did a Smithfield member of the Liason Committee, or the hours another Smithfield girl spent arranging and rearranging Originals at the Convention—we appreciate your many contributions.

To my non-pharmacy friends and other members of my family, who gave generously of their talents by creating Originals, such as a tote bag, bootees, yard stick holder, aprons, place mats and money for me to purchase Originals for them, plus a bag for me to carry my program materials in; for these and more I am grateful!

You have heard our progress of the past. Now look with me for a moment into the crystal ball.

Do you see a series of meetings for wives of UNC pharmacy students on orientation to campus living, and a series on community life with emphasis on being a professional wife?

Do you see many sick children at Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill in need of a cuddly toy?

Do you see the need to continue our support of Loan Funds and Scholarship Grants and pharmacy reeruitment programs?

Do you see the need to support the Pharmaceutical Association and the Institute of Pharmacy?

If so, then may we dedicate ourselves, to creating a greater Auxiliary, insofar as our resources and imaginations will permit.

After recognizing the members of the Winston-Salem Apothecary Club, host group for the convention, the Pages were introduced: Mrs. Shelby Sutison, Mrs. Kay Smith, Mrs. June Smith, Mrs. Wihna Wilkinson, Mrs. Margaret O'Neil.

A prize drawing closed the morning business session, with adjournment to the Forsyth Country Club, where the business was concluded following the luncheon given by Sealtest.

LUNCHEON-BUSINESS SESSION

Mrs. J. M. Darlington, Winston-Salem, a past-president of the Woman's Auxiliary presented the invocation. Mrs. Leon Kimball, wife of the district manager of Sealtest Foods, welcomed the guests. A response was made by Mrs. Clarence E. Page, Jr. of Henderson.

Past-presidents of the state auxiliary and presidents of local auxiliaries were recognized.

The Installation of officers was conducted by Mrs. Leslie Myers in an impressive ceremony.

Mrs. Creech was presented the past-president's pin by Mrs. W. G. Forrest, incoming president. Mrs. Forrest was, in turn presented with the traveling president's pin and gavel.

Following entertainment by the Presbyterian Home Band of High Point, the 1967 session was adjourned.
